Credit Card Terms

Credit Card Agreement regulated by the Consumer Credit Act 1974.

This agreement is made up of the key terms and the additional terms.

Key Terms

How much can you borrow?

You can borrow up to the credit limit. We will confirm your credit limit after we have signed the agreement. If we change it later, we will tell you before we make the change.

How much do you have to pay each month and when?

We will give you a statement each month showing the minimum payment for that month (we may not give you a statement if you do not need to make any payment).

The minimum payment will be the higher of:

- A. The sum of (a) interest for the period from the last statement, (b) any default charges and (c) 1% of the full amount you owe as shown on your monthly statement (not including interest and default charges).
- B. 3% of the full amount you owe as shown on your monthly statement (including interest and charges).
- C. £5.

For example, if the amount you owe on the statement date is £450 including £15 interest and £12 charges, A will give the highest amount so the minimum payment will be £31.23 (£15 (interest), £12 (charges) and £4.23 (1% of £423)). (B would be £13.50 (3% of £450)).

If you owe less than £5 you must pay the full amount you owe (eg if you owe £2.50 that will be the minimum payment).

The minimum payment must reach us by the due date shown in your statement. This will be 25 days from your statement date. You can always pay more than the minimum payment to reduce the amount of interest you have to pay. Information about how to make sure payments reach us on time is on the back of the statement.

You must also pay immediately the amount of any missed payments and the amount you owe above the credit limit. If you pay by Direct Debit we will collect these amounts with your minimum payment if you have not paid them already.

You can ask us to collect payments for you (eg by Direct Debit). You can choose how much you want to pay each month as long as it is not less than the minimum payment. You must try not to pay into the account more than you owe us. We will refund any credit on your account. We will not normally allow you to spend it.

How much does it cost to borrow?

Introductory and promotional rates and charges

We may make promotional rates and charges available from time to time. If we do we'll tell you. We'll also tell you when an introductory or promotional rate is about to end.

You will lose any introductory or promotional rate if you are late in making the minimum payment in any month.

In all other cases (and after the end of an introductory or promotional period) our variable standard rates and charges will apply.

We charge interest from the date each transaction or charge is added to your account until the amount you owe us has been repaid in full. We work out interest on a daily basis and add it to the account on your monthly statement date. If you pay at least the minimum payment each month you will pay off all the interest added to the account that month but, if you don't, we will charge interest on that interest as well as on transactions added to your account.

There are two exceptions to this. We do not charge any interest on default charges. We also do not charge interest on any purchases shown in a statement if you repay the full amount you owe us on that statement date by the next payment due date.

This means that if, for example, you repay in full the amount shown in your July statement by the payment due date in August, we will not charge interest on any purchases added to your account and shown in your July statement. However, even if you don't use your account at all after the July statement date, there may still be 'trailing' interest shown in your August statement. This will be interest we have charged:

- on any cash advances or payments sent from your account (such as balance transfers) in your July statement (because we always charge interest on these); and
- on any amounts carried over from your June statement.

We also charge interest on trailing interest so even if you pay the trailing interest in full in September we may charge further interest on the account.

Non-sterling transaction charges

Transaction type	Charges added to the account with the transaction	Exchange rates for the date the transaction is converted into sterling
Purchase and Cash or cash related payment	2.99% of the transaction in sterling (minimum charge for cash or cash payment £3). These charges are in addition to other charges (for example a cash transaction in Euro will have two charges).	The card schemes use wholesale market rates. You can find the current exchange rates by visiting www.visa-europe.com/making-payments/exchange-rates or www.mastercard.com/global/currencyconversion

Default Charges

Reason	Charge	Added to the account
For paying late	£12	Up to 4 days after the date you should have made the payment.
For going over the credit limit (even if we permit it)	£12	When you go over the limit
For payments which are returned unpaid	£5	When your bank tells us it can't make the payment
For enforcing repayment, including legal and tracing costs	Our reasonable costs	When we apply for enforcement

Can we change the cost of borrowing or any other terms?

Changes to terms that are personal to you

If we change our view of your ability to repay us because of information we get from credit reference agencies or the way you manage the account (for example because you often pay us or other lenders late), we may change the rates that apply to you (unless we are aware that you're at risk of financial difficulties) and we may reduce your credit limit.

Other changes to the credit limit

From time to time we may tell you that a higher limit is available to you and you can ask us to consider giving you a higher credit limit. You can also contact us to tell us:

- you'd like a lower credit limit;
- you don't want to receive any future credit limit increases; or
- never to increase your credit limit without checking with you first (and you can change your mind at any time).

A higher credit limit may offer greater flexibility and convenience to meet your financial needs but it may also increase the risk of borrowing too much, which could be expensive or take a long time to pay off. You should carefully consider whether you need a higher limit.

Changes to rates, charges and other terms for particular reasons

We may also:

- increase or decrease rates and charges to take account of an actual, or reasonably expected, change in the interest rates we have to pay for example as a result of a change to the Bank of England Base Rate; or
- increase or decrease our rates and charges and change any other terms to reflect an actual, or reasonably expected, change in our underlying costs or in law or regulation or to our way of doing business, including the introduction of new technology; or
- change any term to reflect any other actual or reasonably expected change that affects us if it is reasonable for us to pass the impact of the change on to you; or
- if you are employed by us, change the interest rates and charges to our standard rates and charges when your employment ends (except if you retire).

Any change we make will be reasonably proportionate to the impact of the underlying change on us. We will not make changes to cover the same cost twice.

Other changes

As this agreement has no fixed end date, we may also change rates and charges and other terms for reasons that we cannot predict at the outset.

Telling you about changes

At least 30 days before we make any change we will tell you about the change and how it will affect you. We will do this by including a message in your monthly statement, by writing to or emailing you separately or by sending you a mobile message or message using any secure storage facility we provide online.

Your rights when we tell you about changes

If you do not want to accept any change we tell you about, you can end the agreement without charge (in fact you can end the agreement at any time). The change will still apply until you have paid everything you owe us. However, if the change is an increase to an interest rate, you can repay what you owe us at the unchanged interest rate if you tell us within 60 days of notice of the increase that you do not want to accept the higher rate.

When will the agreement begin and end?

The agreement will begin when we have opened the account linked to your card. The agreement does not have a fixed end date but you and we can end it as explained below. You will normally be able to use the account when we have sent you a card.

Can you make a claim against us where you have a claim against a supplier?

If you purchase any item of goods or services costing between £100 and £30,000.00 using credit under this agreement you may have a right of redress against us as well as the supplier if, for example, the goods fail to arrive or are not of satisfactory quality or the supplier made a representation which you relied on about the goods which was not accurate.

However, if you have a dispute with someone else over a transaction, you must keep making payments to us while you are resolving it.

What could happen if you miss payments?

Missing payments could make it more difficult to obtain credit and result in legal action or bankruptcy proceedings to recover any debt owed under this agreement.

Additional Terms

1. Who can use the account and how?

- 1.1 You, and any person you have asked us to give an additional card to, can use the account for the following types of transaction:
 - (a) To make a purchase.
 - (b) To obtain cash or make a cash related payment (such as buying travellers cheques or foreign currency, placing a bet (or for some other gambling payment), or purchasing money orders). We will tell you if there is a limit on the amount of cash you can withdraw each day.
 - (c) To send a payment from your account to a bank account in your name or to reduce or repay an amount you owe to another lender (where available) (although we don't normally allow you to do this where the other lender is in the HSBC Group).
- 1.2 If you ask us to send a payment and it doesn't arrive by the working day after we send it from your credit card account, you can ask us to ask the receiving bank to treat the payment as if it had been made on time.
- 1.3 We will cancel an additional card when you tell us to. We do not have an agreement with any additional cardholder so we cannot give them any information about the account and you are responsible for use of the account by an additional cardholder, including any use that makes you break this agreement. For example if an additional cardholder makes a payment that takes the amount on the account over the credit limit you will be liable.

2. How do you authorise payments?

2.1 When you, or an additional cardholder, make a transaction it must be authorised before we can charge it to your account. You or the additional cardholder will need to provide the card or the card number and will be told the additional steps needed to authorise the payment (except for some low value contactless payments). This could be by signing a paper or electronic document, by using the personal identification number (or PIN), biometric data (such as finger print) or other security details we may agree from time to time.

2.2 If the card, card number and PIN, biometric data or other security details have been used we will assume the transaction has been authorised by you or an additional cardholder. You must therefore tell us immediately if you do not recognise a transaction charged to your account and shown in your statement. You and additional cardholder must not:

- (a) use the card or account for any illegal purpose (or allow anyone else to do so); or
- (b) go over your credit limit.

When working out whether a transaction you want to make is within your credit limit, we take account of transactions which we have already authorised but have not yet charged to the account. For example, if you have £150 left within your credit limit and we give a hotel authorisation for a payment of £100, we may not allow more than £50 to be spent on the account until the authorisation is cancelled.

2.3 If you, or an additional cardholder, allow someone else to use a card or the card number, you will be liable for all transactions they make until you tell us that the card may be misused using the contact details set out below. You will not be liable for (and we will immediately refund) any other transactions not authorised by you or an additional cardholder, including transactions made with the card or card number remotely (for example by the Internet, phone or mail order).

3. When will we give refunds for payments you have authorised?

3.1 If a retailer gives you a refund for a purchase we will only credit it to the account when we receive details from the retailer. Until then we will charge the relevant rate of interest on the purchase.

3.2 Where you, or an additional cardholder, authorise a payment but the amount of the payment is not known (eg if the card is used to pay a hotel bill but the amount of the payment is not known until check out) then, if the payment charged to your account is higher than reasonably expected, you can ask us to make a refund of the amount charged to your account, as long as you do this within 8 weeks of the date that the payment was charged to your account. If you do this, we may need to ask you for information to help us find out what happened. If you are entitled to a refund, we will make it within ten days of the date that we have all the information we need to make a decision.

3.3 You can't ask for a refund where you or the additional cardholder gave consent for the transaction directly to us and we or the retailer provided information about the transaction (or made it available) at least four weeks before the payment was made.

3.4 If you give us the wrong details for a payment or cash related transaction, or we can show that the bank we made the payment to did receive it, we won't have to give you a refund but we will help you to recover the money (we may charge a fee to cover our costs).

4. Can you stop payments you have authorised?

4.1 You can cancel payments which are due to be made on a future date (for example, if you set up a regular payment) by contacting us by the end of the business day before the payment is due to be made (normally 5pm). You must also contact the retailer to tell them you have cancelled the payment.

4.2 You cannot cancel any other transaction after you or an additional cardholder have authorised it (for example, it's not possible to cancel a cash withdrawal or payment for goods or services provided at the time of payment).

5. Can we refuse to authorise a transaction or suspend your right to use the account?

- 5.1 We may refuse to authorise a transaction and cancel or suspend use of the account and refuse to replace or reissue a card if authorising the transaction would cause a breach of this agreement or put us in breach of any legal requirements that apply to us or we reasonably:
- (a) believe that there is a significantly increased risk that you may not be able to repay the amount you owe us (this could be because of the way you manage this account or other accounts you have with us, information we get from credit reference agencies or us finding that you are bankrupt or have made an arrangement with your creditors);
 - (b) suspect fraudulent or unauthorised use of the account;
 - (c) consider it necessary for the security of the account or card;
 - (d) suspect that you, any additional cardholder or third party has committed or is about to commit a crime or other abuse in connection with use of the card or the account.
- You may be asked for further information, including verification of your identity, when we are asked to authorise a transaction.
- 5.2 We can also cancel or suspend the use of the account if:
- (a) for two 18-month periods in a row, you've been in "persistent debt". (This is where you've paid more interest, fees and charges than the amount you've repaid. For example, if you owe £2,000 on your account at an interest rate of 18% and you incur a £12 default charge, your minimum payment for the first month would be £62, made up of interest (£30), default charges (£12) and 1% of £2,000 (the amount you owe) (£20)); and
 - (b) you have either not responded or been unable to meet our requests to increase your repayment amounts, or it is otherwise reasonable for us to do so.
- 5.3 We will tell you if we refuse to send a payment but, for other transactions, you will usually find out if we have refused a transaction because you will be asked for payment by another card, cheque or cash. We will tell you why we have refused the transaction (unless the law prevents us) if you call the contact details below.
- 5.4 We are not responsible if a retailer or supplier refuses to accept your Card.

6. How do we apply payments?

- 6.1 If the amount you pay in a month is less than the full amount you owe, we will apply your payment first to any unpaid arrears or amounts over the credit limit.
- 6.2 We apply what is left in this order:
- (a) any unpaid arrears or amounts over the credit limit;
 - (b) the amount you owe us and shown in your statement;
 - (c) any transactions, interest or charges not yet included in a statement.
- We will apply your payment first to amounts on your account which we charge at the highest interest rate followed by amounts we charged at lower rates. In each case, interest and charges are paid off first.
- If some amounts are charged at the same interest rate, we will apply your payment to the oldest amounts first.

7. Payments into your account by mistake or fraud

- 7.1 If we make a payment into your account by mistake or as a result of a systems error, we'll automatically take the amount out of your account. If we suspect a payment into your account was the result of fraud we'll remove it.
- 7.2 If we're told that a payment from within the European Economic Area (EEA) was made into your account by someone else's mistake (for example if the payer gave the wrong account number), but when we contact you, you tell us the payment was intended for you, we are legally required to share all relevant information including your name and address and transaction information with the bank the payment came from if they ask us so that the payer may contact you.

- 7.3 In all other cases we'll tell you about it and, depending on how long ago the payment was made into your account, we'll either give you time to show us that it was intended for you before we return it or we'll get your consent. During this time we'll make sure you can't use the payment (we might do this by taking the amount out of your account or by limiting access to the amount on the account.

8. What steps do you need to take to keep your account secure?

You must:

- (a) take all reasonable precautions to prevent the account from being used for fraud (when we send a card to you or an additional cardholder we will tell you what precautions you can take, for example not keeping your PIN or passwords with the card or making it easy for someone else to find them);
- (b) tell us immediately using the contact details below if you think the card is lost or stolen or the card number, PIN or security details may be used by someone else or fraudulently (if you find a card you have reported as lost you must destroy it and not use it);
- (c) if we ask, make sure all cards issued on your account are destroyed immediately; and
- (d) co-operate with us and the police to investigate any unauthorised transactions.

9. Using a third party provider (TPP)

- 9.1 A TPP is a third party service provider that's authorised by or registered with the FCA or another EEA regulator or otherwise permitted by law to access information and make payments on online payment accounts operated by other providers (such as banks, building societies and credit card issuers) and has your permission to do this.
- 9.2 An EEA regulator is a regulator in a member state of the European Union, Iceland, Liechtenstein or Norway.
- 9.3 If you choose to use a TPP, the terms of this agreement will still apply. We'll give the TPP access to account information and you'll be able to make the same payments through the TPP that you would be able to make if you were dealing with us online. Account information will include details about who you make payments to and receive payments from. This might contain some sensitive personal information, for example, if you pay a Trades Union or Church membership subscription from your account.
- 9.4 Although you must not, generally, give your security details to anyone else, you may give them to a TPP if it's necessary to allow them to provide their services to you. We may refuse to allow a TPP to access your account if we are concerned that the TPP is acting on an unauthorised or fraudulent basis. We'll tell you if we do this (unless doing so would compromise our reasonable security measures or would otherwise be unlawful).
- 9.5 You must check from the information provided to you by the TPP that they are authorised. If you give your security details to an unauthorised third party, we'll assume it's you that is authorising us to give access to information about your accounts and you'll be responsible for any payments made as a result. If we are aware that an unauthorised third party is using your security details, we'll block access to your accounts.
- 9.6 If you think a payment made through a TPP was unauthorised or incorrect you must call us as soon as you can.

10. How and when can this agreement be ended?

Ending the agreement on notice

- 10.1 You can end this agreement at any time and without charge by giving us notice. We can end the agreement by giving you 2 months' notice in writing. In either case, you (and any additional cardholder) must stop using the account and if we provide any benefits with your card, they will also end. The agreement will continue until you have repaid everything you owe.

Ending the agreement for breach

10.2 If:

- (a) you repeatedly fail to pay minimum payments on time or go over your credit limit; or
- (b) we find that any information you provided as part of your application was materially incorrect or misleading; or
- (c) you are declared bankrupt or have similar proceedings taken against you; or
- (d) we reasonably suspect any fraud or other criminal activity in connection with this agreement and/or any other facility or account that you have with us;

we can:

- (i) demand immediate repayment of the amount you owe on the account;
- (ii) disclose information about you and the conduct of your account to licensed credit reference agencies (which would make it more difficult for you to borrow in future);
- (iii) restrict access to credit on other accounts you have with us (such as an overdraft or other credit cards);
- (iv) bring legal action to recover what you owe us (which could include getting a court order giving us the right to payment out of the sale proceeds for your home or other property); and
- (v) require you to pay our reasonable costs and expenses for taking action to obtain payment, including legal costs;

but we will give you advance notice and the opportunity to fix the problem before taking any of these steps (unless the problem cannot be fixed).

10.3 If we choose not to enforce our rights under this agreement at any time, we may enforce them at a later date instead.

11. Can we transfer our rights and obligations under this agreement?

We may transfer our rights and our obligations under this agreement to a third party, including information about you and how you have managed your account which the third party needs to know. We will tell you if we do this.

12. What law governs this agreement?

This agreement and our dealings with you before the agreement is made are governed by the laws of England and Wales. Any dispute can be dealt with by an English or Welsh court unless your address is in:

- (a) Scotland (where it will be dealt with by the courts of Scotland); or
- (b) Northern Ireland (where it will be dealt with by the courts of Northern Ireland).

We will communicate with you at all times in English.

13. What happens if you cannot make a payment or access your account?

We will not be liable for any loss due to:

- (a) any failure or delay in providing our service caused by strikes, industrial action, failure of power supplies or computer equipment, or other unusual or unforeseeable causes beyond our reasonable control; or
- (b) a retailer or cash machine not accepting, or retaining, your card, or the way in which this is conveyed to you.

14. Information we need from you and when we can disclose information about you.

14.1 If we make a reasonable request for information, you must give it to us as soon as possible. If you don't give it to us, or we suspect fraudulent or criminal activity of any kind:-

- (a) You might not be able to carry on doing some or all of your banking with us anymore;
- (b) we might try and get it from another source, ourselves; or
- (c) We could block or close your accounts(s)

- 14.2 It's up to you to make sure the information you give us is accurate and up to date. And you must tell us of any changes within 30 days.
- 14.3 We'll use your information as explained in our Privacy Notice. In addition, we'll give it to others if we're compelled to do so by law, we have a duty to disclose it, we need to disclose to protect our own interests (for example in any legal proceedings) or if we have your specific agreement. For example, if we believe you may have tax obligations in other countries, we may have to disclose information about you directly to HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) or other local tax authorities.

15. Tax compliance

Your tax responsibilities (eg filing tax returns, paying tax and complying with any other tax laws or regulations) depend on where you live, where you do business and some other factors. It's up to you to make sure you meet those obligations. We can't provide tax or legal advice so if you think having an account with first direct might affect your tax position, you should speak to an independent advisor. This also applies to connected persons eg anyone you send a payment to, who operates an account for you, is entitled to money in your account(s) etc.
